FIND YOUR CALLING – AND GO “ALL IN”

We had a great speaker this past week by the name of “Coach” Bryan Haley. Mr. Haley did a presentation he has adapted from a book called “Uncover Your Calling: Work Reimagined” by Richard J. Leider & David A. Shapiro. Bryan uses this work to present to high-school age students wherever he gets invited.

Bryan’s “calling” is to encourage students to find their calling. He does this by engaging students in an interactive exercise. He starts out by showing basic facts about the importance of a post-high school education.

The students then sort through a list of attributes or skills, and identify those they would use to describe themselves. These attributes are from categories, such as:

- Realistic
- Social
- Structured
- Artistic
- Enterprising
- Investigative

They further narrow this to the top five, the top one calling, their single most natural preference. Now they are positioned to identify several careers that fit with this natural calling. This is such a calling for Bryan he conducts these programs free of charge.

Things Bryan wants students to remember about their calling? First, calling comes from a caller. The calling will keep calling. Having a calling is very personal, and calling is connecting.

The Sunrise hopes to have done Bryan’s presentation some justice. If you are interested in learning more, or have Bryan present to a youth group or other organization (usually high school age), you can contact him here:

SANIBEL PARKING THANKS

As one of your co-captains, along with Ironman Dave Gallentine, for the Parking Team, we want to thank each and every one who was able to participate in this weekend's San-Cap Art Fest. According to the Sanibel Club Leadership, and feedback from the exhibitors, it was a great success. Although the record rains of this year presented some challenges with regard to available parking spaces, the Club, and their family and friends, did another great job in "making it happen".

A special thanks to Frank Newell, who brought out the Royal Canadian task force to support our Club, many of which aren't even Rotarians.

We had a large number of exhibitors, as they were taking down their booths yesterday, compliment Rotary in running one of the best organized events that they attend.

Thanks to all, John McGowan

MUSIC REVIEW

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

"Home on the Range" is a classic western song, sometimes called the "unofficial anthem" of the American West. The Sunrise has written about the song in the past, so briefly, the lyrics were originally written by Dr. Brewster M. Higley of Smith County, Kansas in a poem entitled "My Western Home" in the early 1870s.

Dr. Higley was an otolaryngologist. He was married five times, his first three wives succumbing to injury or disease.

The composer was Daniel Kelly. Mr. Kelly was a musician and entertainer, but was primarily a carpenter by trade. He too had a tragic life, having committed suicide in 1905.

SPECIAL GUEST SPEAKER THIS WEEK

John Barfield will be our premier guest speaker this week. He is so special, in fact, that Rotary International called President Spanberger to encourage a warm Rotarian reception. Mr. Barfield is a Rotarian from Ypsilanti, Michigan, and a Southwest Florida snowbird. You may have seen him on the cover of December 2015's The Rotarian Magazine

He wrote the book, Starting From Scratch: The Humble Beginnings of a Two Billion-Dollar Enterprise, which will be available for purchase at our meeting. $15 of every hardcover book is donated to Rotary's PolioPlus Program to End Polio Now. A table will also be set up for him to sign your copy.

Please plan to attend this important meeting.
